

Bradford Court Chaplaincy Service (BCCS)

“Talk to the Listeners”

Would you like to be one of our Volunteers?

Do you relish a challenge?

Are you:

- A good listener?
- Able to keep a confidence?
- Broad minded?
- Caring?
- Energetic?
- Friendly?
- Non-judgmental?
- Outgoing?
- Patient?
- Reliable?
- Sensitive and Supportive?
- Sympathetic?
- Trustworthy?
- Willing to complete our training course?

Do you have time on your hands?

Are you willing to commit up to one morning or afternoon each week (3 - 4 hours) for a minimum of 12 months to helping others?

If you can say “Yes” to all of the above, you may be just the person we are looking for.

Our two part-time Chaplains, need help from suitable and willing volunteers of all faiths and none to help deliver free, confidential, and sensitive support to a wide variety of people at the Bradford Magistrates’ Court.

The work is challenging, demanding, exciting and innovative.

We offer full induction, training and support.

Our next training course starts in September 2010.

Please call Bryan Rulton on 01274 722422
for more details and to book an interview.
